ETZD-14

Main features:

Auto-dial phone for emergency calls. As soon as you pick up the handset the call is put through.

To program a single auto dial number a "programming keypad" is supplied to connect your hotline telephone to a PABX or a main PCB board. – very simple.

Characteristics:

Robust metal body. Very strong.
Full keypad suppplied for programing autodialing,
Robust and weather resistant, Wear and moisture proof.
Dual purpose design for wall or desk mounting, simple installation.
Industry standard robust handset with stainless armoured cord.
Matches with most PABX,PBX and PAX systems.

Applications:

Can be used as a public telephone for indoor or outdoor, universities, taxi or bus stands or stations, highway call box, railways, metro, ATM machines side, tunnels, ports, docks, mines & aged care facilities...
An ideal telephone for use in wet or corrosive atmospheres.

Sales and Service:

Emergency Telephones

PO Box 606 Rockdale NSW 2216
Telephone: 02-9599-9555
Fax: 02-9599-9225
Email: sales@emergencytelephones.com.au
          service@emergencytelephones.com.au

Sales and Service:

Emergency Telephones

PO Box 606 Rockdale NSW 2216
Telephone: 02-9599-9555
Fax: 02-9599-9225
Email: sales@emergencytelephones.com.au
　　　service@emergencytelephones.com.au